Matlab Source Code Leach Wsn

This is LEACH (Low-Energy Adaptive Clustering Hierarchy) routing protocol for a WSN. It creates a 100-node network with a random position in an 100 square meter field. During Set Up phase it elects cluster heads based on LEACH's cluster head election probability "p" which is included in the "threshold" parameter.

In this code I build and simulate a wireless sensor network (WSN) using improved LEACH protocol in communicating and compare that to the ordinary leach protocol. The parameters of the network is set then it is simulated till all nodes are dead then the analysis of the network behavior is plotted showing its lifetime and the amount of data sent before all nodes get drain their batteries for the two algorithms.

LEACH, Low-Energy Adaptive Clustering Hierarchy, is an application-specific protocol architecture for Wireless Sensor Network (WSN) widely adopted for various Sensor Network variations. It has become one of the most used bases for developing new architecture protocols or modifying the existing one in WSN.

Implementation of LEACH (Low-energy adaptive clustering hierarchy) for WSN (Wireless Sensor Network)in MATLAB. Low-energy adaptive clustering hierarchy ("LEACH") is a TDMA-based MAC protocol which is integrated with clustering and a simple routing protocol in wireless sensor networks (WSNs). The goal of LEACH is to lower the energy consumption required to create and maintain clusters in order to improve the life time of a wireless sensor network.

LEACH assumes that each node has a radio powerful enough to directly reach the base station or the nearest cluster head, but that using this radio at full power all the time would waste energy. Nodes that have been cluster heads cannot become cluster heads again for P rounds, where P is the desired percentage of cluster heads.
